The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 4,8 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification as originally filed does not provide support for the handrail pivotally attached and extending from the mounting frame, as set forth in claims 4,8 and 13-15.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The preamble of claim 1 states that only the assembly is being claimed, while the positive limitation to the trailer "secured to the trailer" suggests that a combination of the assembly and trailer is being claimed, thus rendering the claims indefinite. In the claims it is unclear what the term "open rung", as set forth in claims 1,6, and 11, means. The phrases "said respective elongated guide track opening” and “said respective side track”, as set forth in claim 5, and “said elongated guide track”, as set forth in claim 10, lacks antecedent basis.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3,6,7 and 9-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haberle in view of Urian. Haberle shows the claimed combination with the exception of the pivotally attached upper and lower stair portion with guide bearings receivable in guide slots/tracks in the frame elements. Urian shows upper and lower stair portions S1, S2 with guide bearings 23,26 receivable in a bifurcated guide slots/tracks T2a, T1, T2 on a frame element. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Haberle to comprise pivotally attached upper and lower stairs with guide bearings receivable in guide slots/tracks, as taught by Urian, to enable a longer compact storable stairs assembly. Furthermore, the examiner takes official notice that the provision of textured surfaces on rungs as a slip prevention means, is conventional in the stairs art, and to provide same to the rungs, as taught by Urian, would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in view of the conventional teaching to prevent slipping by a user.

Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haberle and Urian, as applied to claims 1 and 3 above, and further in view of Spivey. Spivey shows multiple wheel assemblies 28,30 secured to a ladder support frame registerable within respective tracks 16. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Haberle to comprise wheel assemblies, as taught by Spivey, to facilitate sliding of his frame.

Claim 12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The request for election dated 2/25/05 have been withdrawn.
